Profile of Main Character's Personality

Name: _____ Hour: _____

Title: _____

Author: _____

Publisher and year: _____

Directions: Everyone has obvious personality traits, parts of themselves that are easily seen by everyone else. Each person has a hidden side that is not shown to anyone except good friends or parents. Choose an important character from the novel and find five external personality traits that are stated by the author directly through description. Then look for five internal personality traits that first are learned by the reader through a character's words, action, or behavior throughout the novel. Label them in the correct side of the circle.

Character Name

Internal Traits

External Traits

The diagram consists of a large circle divided into two equal halves by a vertical line. The left half is labeled 'Internal Traits' and the right half is labeled 'External Traits'. Above the circle, a horizontal line is labeled 'Character Name'.
