Cliché Worksheet

Directions: You’re going to make up your own clichés! I’ve given you the real cliché; your job is to create a different ending for TEN of the following. The funnier the better!! 😊

1. Better to be safe than ________________________________
   Better to be safe than sorry.

2. It’s always darkest before ________________________________
   It’s always darkest before the storm. It’s always darkest before dawn.

3. Never underestimate the power of ________________________________
   Never underestimate the power of a woman.

4. You can lead a horse to water but you can’t______________________________
   You can lead a horse to water but you can’t make him drink.

5. Don’t bite ________________________________
   Don’t bite the hand that feeds you.

6. No news is ________________________________
   No news is good news.

7. A miss is as good as ________________________________
   A miss is as good as a mile.

8. You can’t teach an old dog ________________________________
   You can’t teach an old dog new tricks.

9. If you lie down with dogs, ________________________________
   If you lie down with dogs, you’ll rise up with fleas.

10. The pen is mightier than ________________________________
    The pen is mightier than the sword.

11. Where there’s smoke ________________________________
    Where there’s smoke there’s fire.

12. A penny saved is ________________________________
    A penny saved is a penny earned.

13. Two’s company, three’s ________________________________
    Two’s company, three’s a crowd.

14. Don’t put off till tomorrow ________________________________
    Don’t put off till tomorrow what you can do today.

15. Children should be ________________________________ and not ________________________________
    Children should be seen and not heard.

16. If at first you don’t succeed ________________________________
    If at first you don’t succeed, try, try again.

17. You get out of something ________________________________
    You get out of something what you put into it.

18. Better late than ________________________________ Better late than never.

19. Every cloud has ________________________________
    Every cloud has a silver lining.

20. The early bird ________________________________
    The early bird gets the worm.