

Directions: On a new sheet of paper, write the correct heading. This will be warm ups for week one. Make sure that each day you label the day of the week, and the date. (Remember, the date is on the back board.) If you are absent on one of the days of the week, you need to write absent for that day. You do not need to make of the missing day. If you are absent, you need to turn in your warm ups for the week on the day you return.

Day 1 Monday involve involve (verb) -to have something as a necessary part; include

-Winning the championship will involve beating every team.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Doing well in school involves _____.

2. If class reports involve doing research, what does that mean?

- a. Research is not needed for the reports.
- b. The class members are being studied for research.
- c. The reports are about people who do research.
- d. Class members need to do research for their reports.

3. Which word is a synonym for involve?

- a. push
- b. require
- c. find
- d. inspire

Day 2 Tuesday involve exclude

involve (verb)

-to bring into a situation

-Our teacher involves parents as guest speakers on Occupation Day.

exclude (verb)

-to keep or leave something or someone out.

-We exclude some jobs on Occupation Day because we can't include everything.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I would not want to be involved in _____.

It is rude to exclude _____ from _____.

2. If a friend wants to involve you in an activity, what does that mean?

a. The friend wants you to be part of the activity.

b. The friend lives far away from you.

c. It is necessary for you to do the activity.

d. To friend is keeping the activity a secret.

3. Which word is a synonym for exclude?

a. welcome

c. excite

b. reject

d. interest

Day 3 Wednesday omit

omit (verb)

-to leave out; not include

-Let's not omit a single event when we describe our fantastic vacation!

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

If I could omit one activity from my day, it would be _____ .

2. A teacher will omit your lowest quiz score when figuring your grade. What should that do to your grade?

- a. lower your grade
- b. make no difference to your grade
- c. raise your grade
- d. cause you to fail

3. You send in a drawing to an art contest but omit the entry form. What did you do?

- a. You filled out the form incorrectly.
- b. You attached the form in the wrong place.
- c. You sent the form to the wrong address.
- d. You did not include the entry form.

Day 4 Thursday omission

omission (noun)

-something that is left out, removed, or not done

-It was an omission to not give credit to everyone who worked on the project.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Forgetting to _____ is an omission I would never make.

2. A newspaper article about a school event include on omission. What happened?

- a. An important piece of information was not included in the article.
- b. The article was very long.
- c. The article included a quote from the principal.
- d. The school schedule for the year was included in the article.

3. Which sentence uses omission correctly?

- a. The omission needs some ideas to make it clearer.
- b. Please omission some words to make the sentence shorter.
- c. One serious omission in the team list was the name of the coach.
- d. If you need an omission to the report, you can add some artwork.

Day 5 Friday involve exclude omit omission

Take the mini quiz and then turn in your warm ups for the week.

1. Which of these does a group project not involve?
 - A. sharing ideas with others
 - B. team planning
 - C. sharing responsibilities
 - D. being best friends

3. In which sentence could the word omit fill in the blank?
 - A. We need to _____ one player because we have too many today.
 - B. We need to _____ one player because we have too few today.
 - C. We need to _____ the team to get started.
 - D. We need to _____ the game and continue when it stops raining.

4. Which word is an antonym for omission?
 - A. deletion
 - B. addition
 - C. opportunity
 - D. error