

Directions: On a new sheet of paper, write the correct heading. This will be warm ups for week one. Make sure that each day you label the day of the week, and the date. (Remember, the date is on the back board.) If you are absent on one of the days of the week, you need to write absent for that day. You do not need to make of the missing day. If you are absent, you need to turn in your warm ups for the week on the day you return.

Day 1 Monday acquire acquire (verb) -to get as your own

-I just acquired a new bike.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Something I would like my family to acquire is _____ .

2. Students must acquire a uniform for school. What does that mean?

- a. Every student is against uniforms.
- b. Students want to dress the same.
- c. Every student must get a school uniform.
- d. Students will come to school in one group.

3. Which of these would help you most to acquire a particular skill?

- a. having a friend with this skill
- b. learning and practicing the skill yourself
- c. watching your teacher use the skill
- d. hearing about what you can do with this skill

Day 2 Tuesday accumulate accumulate (verb) -to collect, gather together, or let pile up

-I will accumulate many rocks in order to build a wall.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Something that can accumulate on the ground is _____.

2. Emma spends a week at the beach and accumulates seashells. What does that mean?

- a. She throws away all the seashells she finds.
- b. She buries many seashells on the beach.
- c. She sells many seashells at the beach.
- d. She finds and collects many seashells.

3. You need to accumulate information for a report. What do you need to do?

- a. gather information to use in the report
- b. throw out information you don't need
- c. collect reports
- d. think of a topic for a report

Day 3 Wednesday accumulation accumulation (noun) -an amount that collects or piles up

-There is an accumulation of empty bottles in the garage.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

In my room I have an accumulation of _____ .

2. Which word would not be used to describe an accumulation?

- a. growing
- b. increasing
- c. friendly
- d. large

3. Jill has an accumulation of newspapers. Which sentence best explains why she has an accumulation?

- a. She picked up her neighbor's newspaper this morning.
- b. She kept every day's newspaper for a month.
- c. She gave many newspapers away.
- d. She asked for a job at a newspaper

Day 4 Thursday compile compile (verb) -to collect or put together in an orderly form

-We should compile the list of sources that we used for our report.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Something that a family might compile is _____.

2. Which word is a synonym for compile?

- a. sort
- b. write
- c. assemble
- d. edit

3. Your teacher asks you to compile a list of materials needed for the science experiment. What do you need to do?

- a. Make labels for the equipment.
- b. Write down the name of each item needed.
- c. Look in the cupboard.
- d. Do the experiment.

Day 5 Friday acquire accumulate accumulation compile Mini Quiz

Take the mini quiz and then turn in your warm ups for the week.

1. Which sentence uses acquire correctly?
 - A. I have to acquire an illness for school.
 - B. I need to acquire a library card to check out books.
 - C. Hannah wants to acquire herself in a new dress.
 - D. There is one acquire that all students must meet.

2. In which sentence could accumulate fill in the blank?
 - A. It would be fun to _____ exhibits at the museum.
 - B. It would be fun to _____ stars on the summer night.
 - C. It would be fun to _____ rare baseball cards.
 - D. It would be fun to _____ a party for all of my friends.

3. Which word would not be used as a synonym for accumulation?
 - A. invitation
 - B. pile
 - C. stack
 - D. collection

4. Which sentence does not use compile correctly?
 - A. We can compile our stories into a book.
 - B. We need to compile a list of camping supplies.
 - C. We can go to the market to compile our dinner.

D. We have a week to compile the information.