

Directions: On a new sheet of paper, write the correct heading. This will be warm ups for week one. Make sure that each day you label the day of the week, and the date. (Remember, the date is on the back board.) If you are absent on one of the days of the week, you need to write absent for that day. You do not need to make of the missing day. If you are absent, you need to turn in your warm ups for the week on the day you return.

Day 1 Monday constructconstruct (verb)-to build or put together-We constructed a model of the solar system from styrofoam and hangers.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

To construct a _____, I need _____.

2. Your teacher asks you to construct a sentence. What do you need to do?

- Find a correct sentence.
- Identify what is wrong with a sentence.
- Use blocks with letters to build some words.
- Put words together to form a sentence.

3. Your assignment is to construct a piece of artwork. Which product would not fit the assignment?

- an object you build with pieces of wood
- a picture you make by gluing together scraps of paper
- a picture of a painting that you cut out from a magazine
- an object you form by gluing together tubes of cardboard

Day 2 Tuesday constructiveconstructive (adjective)-serving a useful purpose; helpful-His constructive comment helped me find a solution to my problems.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

When solving a math problem, a constructive tool is _____.

2. Which word is an antonym for constructive?

- a. purposeful
- b. positive
- c. destructive
- d. promising

3. If a friend offers you constructive ideas to solve a problem, which of these is most likely to be true?

- a. Your friend's ideas will help you build something.
- b. Your friend's ideas are not helpful.
- c. Your friend's ideas may help you solve your problem.
- d. Your friend's ideas will cause a problem you have to solve.

Day 3 Wednesday formulate formulate (verb) -to work out an idea or opinion or to state something carefully and precisely

-We will formulate a persuasive plan to get permission for a field trip.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I should formulate a plan to _____.

2. Your science teacher challenges you to formulate a new invention. What do you need to do?

- a. Create a math formula for an invention.
- b. Test a new invention.
- c. Do a report on a new invention you have heard about.
- d. Develop a plan for a new invention.

3. Which word does not describe how to work when you formulate something?

- a. slowly
- b. precisely
- c. carelessly
- d. thoroughly

Day 4 Thursday initiate initial initiate (verb) -to start; to cause to begin

-The warring countries will initiate peace talks.

initial (adjective) -first, or at the beginning
-Our initial plan was to see a movie, but we went hiking instead.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I wish my teacher would initiate _____ .

My initial impression of our class was _____ .

2. the library plans to initiate a reading contest. What does that mean?
 - a. The librarian will start a reading contest.
 - b. The librarian will conclude a reading contest.
 - c. The librarian will judge a reading contest.
 - d. The librarian will stop a reading contest.

3. If your initial answer on a test was wrong, which of these would be true?
 - a. Your answer correctly the first time.
 - b. You did not answer the question.
 - c. You tried to change your second answer.
 - d. You started with the wrong answer.

Day 5 Friday construct constructive formulate initiate initial

Mini Quiz

Take the mini quiz and then turn in your warm ups for the week.

1. In which sentence could construct replace the underlined word or words?
 - A. The community will tear down the old school.
 - B. The children will decorate their bedroom.
 - C. The family will build a doghouse in the yard.
 - D. The sanitation department will place a trash can on the corner.

2. In which sentence is formulate used correctly?
 - A. We learned that formulate last year.
 - B. It will take time to formulate an entry for the writing contest.
 - C. The formulate for winning a contest is to read the rules carefully.
 - D. All we need to formulate is a hammer and some nails.

3. In which sentence is initiate not used correctly?
 - A. Let's initiate the project today so we can finish tomorrow.

- B. Let's initiate the project that was finished yesterday.
- C. We can initiate the project when we get the materials.
- D. They will initiate their project at the same time.

4. In which sentence can initial fill in the blank?

- A. My _____ are the same as yours.
- B. The _____ season of the year is summer.
- C. Saturday is the _____ last day of every week.
- D. Breakfast is the _____ meal of the day for many people.