

Directions: On a new sheet of paper, write the correct heading. This will be warm ups for week one. Make sure that each day you label the day of the week, and the date. (Remember, the date is on the back board.) If you are absent on one of the days of the week, you need to write absent for that day. You do not need to make of the missing day. If you are absent, you need to turn in your warm ups for the week on the day you return.

Day 1 Monday insert insertion insert (verb) -to put, or place inside something

-You should insert a comma between the city and state.

insertion (noun) -the act of inserting
-The insertion of a comma will correct the error.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I would like to insert _____ into my usual day.

The insertion of more books on the classroom shelves would _____.

2. During a science experiment, you insert a straw into a bottle. What do you do?

- Use the straw to drink.
- Place the straw next to the bottle.
- Put the straw inside the bottle.
- Measure the straw and the bottle.

3. Which sentence uses insertion correctly?

- The insertion of an extra hour makes out school day longer.
- More students would take part in an art class insertion.
- The coaches plan to insertion a new sport this year.
- The student has an insertion of the rules to explain.

Day 2 Tuesday compact insertion (noun) -something, such as a word or phrase, that has been inserted

-A comma was the only insertion that was needed in your entire report.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

When I check my writing, I often have to make an insertion of _____ .

2. An insertion is needed to correct a misspelled word. What does that mean?
 - a. You have used the wrong letter.
 - b. You need to add the missing letter.
 - c. You need to write a new sentence.
 - d. A sentence is missing many important words.

3. Which of these would never be true of a sentence after an insertion was added.
 - a. The sentence would be clearer.
 - b. The sentence would be longer.
 - c. The sentence would be more interesting.
 - d. The sentence would be shorter.

Day 3 Wednesday delete delete (verb) -to remove from a piece of writing or computer text

-Please delete the period and add a question deletion (noun) -the act of deleting

-The deletion of a period takes one touch of a computer key.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I would like to delete _____ from my usual week.

I think the deletion of _____ from _____ would be a good idea.

2. The cafeteria has to delete items from the lunch menu. What does that mean?
 - a. There will be fewer items on the menu.
 - b. There will be more items on the menu.
 - c. the menu will not change.
 - d. The cafeteria will stop serving lunch.

3. The deletion of a rule would have what results?
 - a. The wording of the rule would change.
 - b. The rule would not longer have to be followed.
 - c. The rule would be easier to understand.
 - d. The rule would only be used now and then.

Day 4 Thursday deletion

deletion (noun) -something, such as a word or phrase, that has been deleted
-You made the wrong deletion and now the sentence doesn't make sense.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

The deletion of _____ would make a paragraph hard to read.

2. Which word is an antonym for deletion?

- a. improvement
- b. direction
- c. illustration
- d. addition

3. Which sentence uses deletion correctly?

- a. The deletion made the sentence too wordy.
- b. One more deletion will add just the right word.
- c. This deletion made the sentence more concise.
- d. A sentence that needs a deletion is usually too clear.

Day 5 Friday insert insertion delete deletion Mini Quiz

Take the mini quiz and then turn in your warm ups for the week.

1. Which of these would not be an example of an insertion?

- A. a word in a sentence
- B. a sentence in a paragraph
- C. a paragraph in an essay
- D. a title of a story

2. In which sentence does insertion mean “the act of inserting”?

- A. The insertion of a heavy object caused the tub of water to overflow.
- B. The block in the middle was the insertion that made the tower stronger.
- C. That phrase was a great insertion to add to our conclusion.
- D. Adding his opinion was the wrong insertion when facts were needed.

3. When you delete something, what happens to the deletion?

- A. It is added.
- B. It is gone.
- C. It is revised

D. It is not changed.

4. In which sentence could deletion fill in the blank?

A. The _____ of cooking class means no more cooking lessons.

B. The _____ of our team means we will get to play ball this year.

C. The _____ of that mystery will continue for a long time.

D. The _____ of a new planet would be an exciting adventure.