

Directions: One a new sheet of paper, write the correct heading. This will be warm ups for week one. Make sure that each day you label the day of the week, and the date. (Remember, the date is on the back board.) If you are absent on one of the days of the week, you need to write absent for that day. You do not need to make of the missing day. If you are absent, you need to turn in your warm ups for the week on the day you return.

Day 1 Monday cite*cite (verb)-to refer to for explanation or proof-I always cite the sources that I use in my reports.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Some references that I might cite for a report are _____.

2. Which statement is true when you cite a source?

- a. You give credit to someone else's ideas.
- b. You are repeating a rumor.
- c. You don't believe the information is worth repeating.
- d. You can't see the source's point of view.

3. Which sentence describes someone citing a source?

- a. Renee asked her teacher to report the directions.
- b. Chloe did not write down the author and title of the article in which she found the data.
- c. Gavin told his audience who said the quotation he repeated.
- d. Trey read an article from the encyclopedia.

Day 2 Tuesday citation*citation (noun)-a short note recognizing a source of information or of a quoted passage-the citation of the history book informed the reader where the winter four her information.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

A citation of a newspaper article would probably _____.

2. Which sentence uses citation correctly?

- a. William always citations his sources.
- b. Scott's citation told us where to meet him for the study group.
- c. My citation is that you should always give credit to other authors.
- d. Emily's essay failed to list several important citations.

Day 3 Wednesday assert assert (verb) -to state or declare strongly

-We need to assert our support of our friend.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I assert my opinion when _____.

2. In history, you read about a colony trying to assert its independence. What does that mean?
 - a. The colony is trying to avoid becoming independent.
 - b. The colony is losing a war for independence.
 - c. The colony is declaring its right to be independence.
 - d. The colony is a place where people can be free.
3. If you assert your point of view on a topic, which of these is true?
 - a. No one knows what you think about the topic.
 - b. You are not interested in the topic.
 - c. You don't really have a point of view.
 - d. Others know exactly what you think about the topic.

Day 4 Thursday validate validate (verb) -to prove true or factual; to confirm by giving evidence or support

-The research I found validates my ideas.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

I could validate my view on an issue by _____ .

2. Which of these things would validate global warming?
 - a. Statistics and evidence that show an increase in the temperature on the Earth.
 - b. Statistics and evidence that show a decrease in the temperature on the Earth.
 - c. A famous person saying he or she believes in global warming.

- d. People talking about how it feels warmer this year than last year.
3. which sentence correctly uses validates?
- You should validate your thoughts with mine.
 - In order to validate my theory, I disapprove it.
 - The experiment should validate the idea that exercise lowers blood pressure.
 - What kind of validate do I need to support my views?

Day 5 Friday cite citation assert validate Mini Quiz

Take the mini quiz and then turn in your warm ups for the week.

1. In which sentence is cite used correctly?
- Find the cite of the restaurant on the map.
 - We have no way to cite which is the best restaurant to try.
 - We can call this restaurant what kind of food they serve.
 - We can cite this restaurant as an example of a good place to eat.
2. In which sentence is citation used correctly?
- I can citation several reviews that say the movie is awful.
 - Please include a citation to support your assignment.
 - there is no way to citation how this book will end.
 - We can citation a famous quote to introduce our presentation.
3. In which sentence could assert fill in the blank?
- We _____ that we need more time to complete the project.
 - The _____ of his painting was excellent.
 - They need an _____ to prove their experiment can work.
 - We shyly _____ our question to the teacher.
4. Which word is a clue to the meaning of validate?
- give
 - support

C. write

D. find