

Directions: One a new sheet of paper, write the correct heading. This will be warm ups for week one. Make sure that each day you label the day of the week, and the date. (Remember, the date is on the back board.) If you are absent on one of the days of the week, you need to write absent for that day. You do not need to make of the missing day. If you are absent, you need to turn in your warm ups for the week on the day you return.

Day 1 Monday relevant irrelevant relevant (adjective) -having to do with what is currently being discussed or is important

-Knowing the last day of school is relevant to making our summer vacation plans.

irrelevant (adjective) -not having to do with what is currently being considered or is discovered
-The date of winter break is irrelevant to making our summer plans.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Something that is relevant to doing well in school is _____.

Something that is irrelevant to doing well in school is _____.

2. A teacher asks you to choose a relevant topic for a report. What does that mean?

- a. You can choose any topic you like.
- b. The topic needs to relate to what you are studying.
- c. The topic needs to require a lot of research.
- d. Everyone is supposed to choose the same topic.

3. A teacher says that your report has irrelevant information. What does that mean?

- a. Everything you included in your report is important.
- b. You included interesting information in your report.
- c. You didn't do as much research as your teacher requested.
- d. You included information that is not connected to your topic.

Day 2 Tuesday appropriate appropriate (adjective) -suitable, or right for the purpose

-It is appropriate that all students who made an extra effort should receive an award.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

An appropriate way to treat a new student in school is to _____.

2. If a movie is appropriate for all ages, which of these is true?

- a. Only children can see it.
- b. Only adults can see it.
- c. The movie is suitable for anyone to see.
- d. The movie is about people of all ages.

3. Your teacher praises the class because everyone has the appropriate materials for an activity. What does that mean?

- a. Everyone has the right materials for the activity.
- b. Everyone has done a great job on the activity.
- c. Everyone has the oldest materials they could find.
- d. Everyone has exciting materials to share.

Day 3 Wednesday pertain pertain (verb) -to relate to or have to do with something

-Those materials all pertain to geometry.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

My favorite kinds of books pertain to _____.

2. Your teacher says that test questions will pertain to stories you have read this year. What does that mean?

- a. The test questions will cover many subjects.
- b. The test questions will be about stories you have read.
- c. The test will have stories to read and questions to answer.
- d. You cannot study for the test.

3. If more of your summer activities pertain to being outdoors, which of these is true?

- a. You don't care where you are in the summer.
- b. You spend a lot of time indoors in the summer.
- c. You like to read about and watch different summer activities.

d. Your summer activities primarily take place outside.

Day 4 Thursday pertinent pertinent (adjective)

-Having to do with or connected to a subject

-That book is pertinent to our discussion of books to read this summer.

1. Complete the sentence. You need to write out the entire sentence, not just the part you added.

Something that is pertinent to preparing for my future education is _____.

2. Which word is a clue to the meaning of pertinent?

- a. related
- b. determined
- c. indifferent
- d. separate

3. Which statement is true of a pertinent question?

- a. It is a trick question and has no answer.
- b. It is a rude question.
- c. It has to do with what is being studied or discussed.
- d. It has to do with a topic that should not be discussed.

Day 5 Friday relevant irrelevant appropriate pertain pertinent
Mini Quiz

Take the mini quiz and then turn in your warm ups for the week.

1. Which phrase is a clue to the meaning of irrelevant?

- A. point of view
- B. not to the point
- C. to the point
- D. point out

2. Which phrase means the opposite of appropriate?

- A. out of place
- B. out loud
- C. up and down
- D. suitable to

3. In which sentence could pertain fill in the blank?

- A. The letters do not _____ a larger folder to hold them.
- B. The letters _____ many adventures.
- C. The letters _____ ideas that we can discuss.
- D. The letters _____ tour report on famous diaries.

4. Which sentence uses pertinent correctly?

- A. A pertinent problem is connected to a situation and needs to be solved.
- B. A pertinent answer has nothing to do with the question that was asked.
- C. A pertinent discussion is not connected to any subject.
- D. A pertinent activity is just for fun and can be done anytime.