

Directions: Choose the correct word from the bank to complete each sentence.

Assimilate	Belligerent	Demeanor	Denunciation	Dissipate
Indolent	Inherent	Nonchalant	Unassuming	Unilateral

- The eye is not necessarily a(n) _____ part of the reading process. Blind people can read Braille—a system of raised dots—with their fingertips.
- Anger builds up if you hold it in. But expressing anger can help it to _____ leaving you much calmer.
- Jerry is a(n) _____ child who frequently pushes and hits other children.
- In a _____ of the union, the company president said that its members were “selfish and narrow-minded.”
- It’s amazing how _____ kids can be about computers; they’ll work at the keyboard as casually as if it were a coloring book.
- Because she herself is a workaholic, my boss thinks that anyone who works less than ten hours a day is _____.
- Airport security guards are trained to observe people’s _____ so that they can notice and respond to any suspicious behavior.
- Even though Marsha was the star of the team, she was always _____ and quick to give credit to the whole team for its successes.
- Many Americans who live and work abroad make no attempt to _____ to foreign countries; they continue to eat only American food, speak only English, and see things only from an American perspective.
- Governments are usually reluctant to take _____ action in international disputes. They want other countries to join them in their efforts.

Directions: Write a synonym and antonym on the line for the vocabulary word.

Vocabulary Word	Synonym	Antonym
1. Assimilate
2. Belligerent
3. Demeanor
4. Denunciation
5. Dissipate
6. Indolent
7. Inherent
8. Nonchalant
9. Unassuming
10. Unilateral

Directions: On a separate sheet of paper, use each vocabulary word in a sentence with at least 8 words in it.

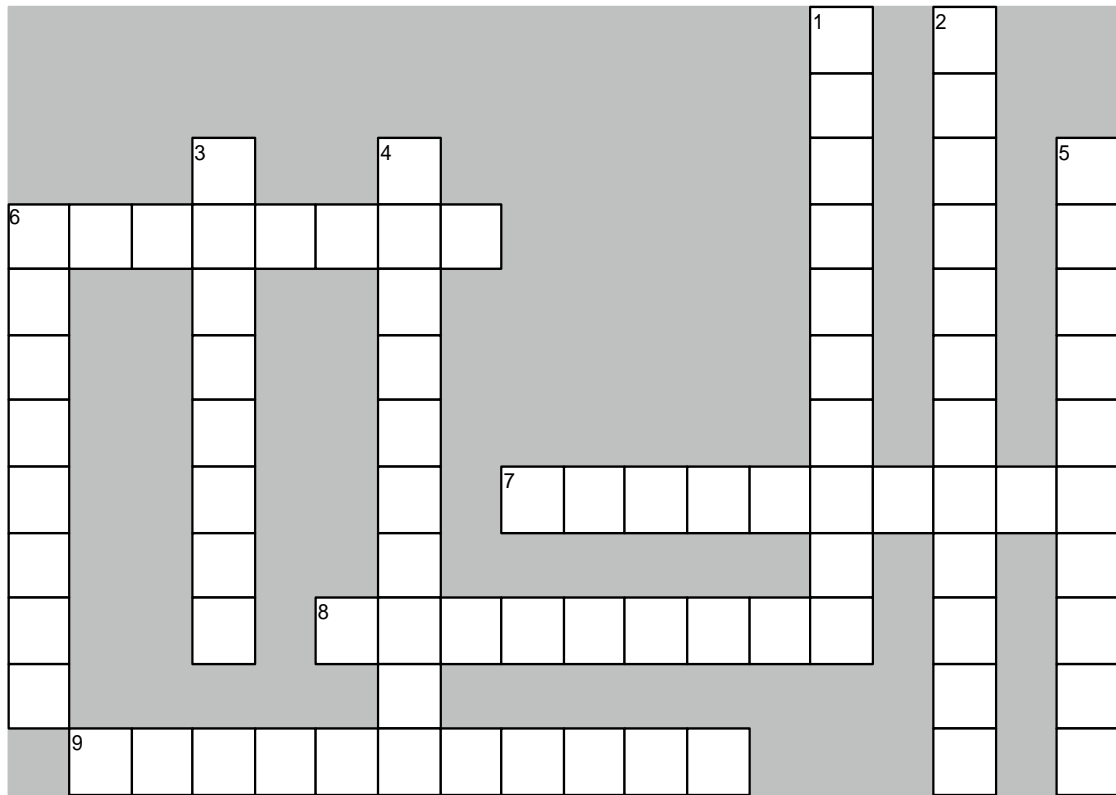

Name _____

Hour _____

Unit 4 Vocabulary

Chapter 19

Green Level

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

- 6 existing as a natural or essential quality of a person or thing
- 7 calm, carefree, and casually unconcerned
- 8 to scatter; to thin out or scatter and gradually vanish
- 9 quick or eager to argue or fight; hostile

DOWN

- 1 to become more similar to a larger whole
- 2 a strong expression of disapproval; an act of condemning, especially publically
- 3 conduct; outward behavior; manner
- 4 modest; not boastful or arrogant; humble
- 5 involving or done by only one side; one-sided
- 6 lazy; avoiding or disliking work