

Unit 5 Vocabulary Review Crossword

Green Level

ACROSS

- 3 -approaching; about to happen; imminent
- 5 -to misunderstand; to misinterpret; misunderstand the meaning or significance of
- 8 -to invent; to make up (a story, information) in order to deceive; invent (a lie)
- 10 -all-powerful; having unlimited power or authority
- 11 -to imitate; to try to equal or surpass, especially by imitation
- 13 -expert; skillful and clever under challenging conditions
- 15 -to sin or commit an offense; break a law or command
- 16 -the reverse; the exact opposite
- 17 -a state of confusion; a state of uncertainty or confusion about what to do; predicament
- 24 -the ability to know something without the conscious use of reasoning; instinct
- 25 -an unoriginal comment; a remark that is commonplace or has become uninteresting
- 27 -to flow or spread throughout (something); to penetrate
- 28 -a final high point; the highest point or degree or a series of actions or events; the climax
- 29 -to speed up or ease the progress of; to www.CrosswordWeaver.com

- | | | | | | | |
|--|---|--|---|---|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 31 -organization of people in a series of levels, according to importance or authority 32 -violent; full of wild disorder or wildly irregular motion; violently disturbed 34 -suitable (said of time); well-timed; appropriate 42 -to scold sharply; express blame or disapproval; to criticize 43 -a claim; a claim that something is true; a | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> hasten 44 -overly willing to please, serve, obey, or flatter in order to gain favor 46 -harsh; able to cause a wearing away by rubbing or scraping; rough; irritating 47 -to prevent or hinder by talking action beforehand; to keep from happening 48 -supreme; of greatest concern or importance; foremost; chief in rank or authority 49 -undesirably | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> noticeable; overly obvious 50 -wicked; extremely evil; outrageous DOWN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1 -a prediction of the course, outcome, or fate of something, especially a disease or injury; 2 -intense; forceful; strong 4 -expressing a low opinion; belittling; uncomplimentary 6 -serving to make (a fault, an offense, or | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> guilt) less serious or seem less serious through 7 -to criticize; to scold gently but seriously 9 -to disable; to make unable or unfit, especially for normal activities; disable 12 -favorable; being a good sign; encouraging 14 -extremely attentive to details; fussy; very particular 18 -an indirect remark or gesture, usually suggesting | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> something belittling; an insinuation; a 19 -the topmost point; a peak of achievement 20 -to confirm; to show to be true; prove 21 -an inequity or difference, as in ages or amounts 22 -deceitful; characterized by trickery, cheating, or lies 23 -to reject; to deny the trust, validity, or authority of 26 -working or spreading harmfully but in a manner hard | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to notice; more harmful than at 30 -turbulent; the noisy disorder of a crowd; a commotion 33 -something given or done as repayment, reward, or (usually) punishment; a penalty 35 -to suggest slyly; to hint 36 -under the authority or power of another; inferior or below in rank, power, or importance 37 -gruesome; suggestive of death and | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> decay; frightful; causing horror and distrust 38 -not able to be fixed, repaired, or remedied 39 -dishonor; a mark of shame or disgrace; blemish on character or reputation. 40 -a conclusion drawn from evidence; an assumption 41 -to treat with scorn or contempt; defy insultingly; to mock and defy 45 -to make fun of; ridicule; to mock |
|--|---|--|---|---|--|---|