

Expository Paragraph Writing

Organization is the key.

Topic sentences are the heart.

Transitions are the glue for the key ideas.

Examples, evidence, and explanations are the meat.

Conclusions tie it all together.

